

Dyersburg State
Community College kicks off its 40th anniversary celebrations with this fun, festive, high energy evening. Groundbreaking ceremonies for the college took place on May 29, 1968. The first registration for the college took place on September 29, 1969, and the first classes were held on September 30, 1969. Today over 2,700 students are enrolled in coursework at our Dyersburg Campus, the DSCC Jimmy Naifeh Center at Tipton County and the DSCC Gibson County Center and through online opportunities.

The Dempseys, a unique musical trio based in Memphis, are known for their brand of high octane rockabilly music and their much talked about live show. The band's energetic live performances are unlike any show in the current popular music scene. Over the last six years, The Dempseys have been featured on numerous television programs including The Today Show, Good Morning America, Entertainment Tonight, CNN and the Travel Channel's visit to Memphis.

Bring your dancing shoes and be ready for a great time!

Child care for the evening will be provided by the Baptist Collegiate Ministry. To reserve a spot, please contact BCM Director Stan Cavness at 731/285-3750
