To a Prospective Employer:

Jane Vondy has provided a complete package of marketing services to the United Way of Alamance County. The quality of her work has been superb.

The services that Jane has offered include the maintenance of our website, producing an e-newsletter weekly, designing and overseeing the production of printed materials (invitations, newspaper inserts, flyers, posters, brochures, newspaper ads, and newsletters). Jane also acts as our media coordinator, special event planner & coordinator and official photographer.

Jane is a wonderful graphics designer; she has created eye-catching materials that capture the attention of our audiences. Her high level of professionalism has raised awareness of our work in the community and has caused those not familiar with our organization to regard us highly.

In addition, Jane is more than fair in her billings for the work she performs for us. She is a person who cares for the work we are doing and her fees reflect her interest in our success. We are truly saddened with the prospect of losing her services. Someone else will no doubt assist us in the future, but we know that we will never replace her.

I commend Jane Vondy to you for your consideration. She will bring a level of professionalism and caring to your organization that you should not miss.

Sincerely,

David A. Knotts
President

The United Way of Alamance County, as an organization of donors and volunteers, exists to provide opportunities to the community to address its human service needs. We strive to identify those needs, to educate the community, and to acquire, organize, and allocate resources in a manner that ensures accountability and maximum effectiveness.
